- List any association you have had with the Soil & Water Conservation District or their Supervisors: _____

- Attend a Board Meeting that is open to the public for a Soil & Water Conservation District, an Irrigation District, a Planning and Zoning Commission, or a Road or Highway Board.

Note: You are not expected to speak or participate in the meeting you attend. (For meeting suggestions, contact one of the names at the bottom of the page.)*

During the meeting, take notes and attach a written report of no more than 150 words answering the following 4 questions:

1. Which meeting did you attend and why?
2. Who led or directed the meeting?
3. Who participated in the meeting that was not an elected official?
4. What did you observe or find interesting about the meeting?

- Meet with a Farmer, a Rancher, or someone working in an agricultural related field.

Request 10 minutes of their time and show up to the appointment on time, appropriately dressed, and ready to take notes. If they ask why you want to meet, tell them you are doing the interview for a scholarship application and want to learn more about agricultural careers.

Ask them the following 6 questions:

1. Why did you choose to work in agriculture?
2. What duties do you normally perform?
3. If a farmer or a rancher, what crops (or animals) are you currently growing (or raising), and why did you choose them?
4. What sustainable practices do you implement on your farm or that you encourage through your job?
5. What training or education would be helpful for someone wanting to pursue this same career path?
6. What are the biggest challenges you face in farming (or ranching) today?

Submit a written report of no more than 150 words summarizing your visit and their responses as well as anything else you observed during the interview that you found interesting.

- Write (and submit) a letter to an Idaho State Legislator about a current Ag related issue. Advocate a position beneficial to agriculture in Southern Idaho. Submit a copy of your letter with this scholarship application and include which legislator you contacted.

Note: If selected as a finalist, you will be asked to attend an interview where you will share your experiences with this application and explain your letter to a legislator.
